AN IMPRESSIVES FUNERAL

Remains of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Jost and Also of Young Jesse Forbes.

A Correction Respecting Statements Made by Rawlins Correspondent Concerning F. S. Woodcock.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Jost, the wife of Samuel Jost, were held at the family residence yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. E. I. Goshen, of the Congregational church, officiated at the services. He preached a very impressive and consoling sermon. Some very sweet music was furnished by a double quartet under the direction of Prof. Joseph Ballantyne.

The attendance was very large, the house being entirely too small to accommodate the large concourse of friends who gathered to extend their sympathy. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes. A large funeral cortege followed the remains to the City cemetery where they were laid

FUNERAL OF JESSE FORBES.

The funeral services over the remains The funeral services over the remains of Jesse Forbes, the unfortunate young man who was accidentally shot and killed last Sunday, were held at the family residence yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The home was crowded with sympathizing friends. A quartet furnished the music which was very sweet. Rev. Goshen, of the Congregational church, preached the funeral sermon which was filled with words of comfort to the bereaved family. Prof. Watson, of the High school, and Hon. G. H. Islaub, of the school board, made a few remarks eulogizing the noble character of the deceased and his haracter of the deceased and his brightness as a student.

Many beautiful floral offerings were laid on the casket. The remains were interred in the City cemetery.

OGDEN POULTRY SHOW.

The Ogden Poultry and Pet Stock association will hold their show in this sociation will hold their show in this city next week on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday. The exhibition promises to be very large and interesting to such fanciers. This will be the first show of the association, and will be a grand success from present indications. There are at present fifty-six members in the association, who will exhibit and any other person who have fine pure bred poultry and pet stock are cordially in-vited to exhibit. The association is comparatively young, but promises to be one of the largest in the West. The officers of the association are: W. J. Hancock, president; M. J. Hewitt, sec-retary; J. W. Keogh, treasurer; A. E. thorogood, first vice president; L., fhornton, second vice president; Alva sebring, third vice president; M. L., snow, assistant secretary. Executive committee: W. J. 5th inst. there appeared an item in your special correspondent of Rawlins stating that one Frank Wood cock, express messenger, of train No 3, had become insane and had been taken in charge, upon arriving in Ogden, and that he being the same that was in the holdup of Wilcox and Tipton train robery. I wish to emphatically say that no part of the above statement is true, and that I was never in any hold-up or train robbery, nor was ever in sane in any degree. It is true that I was slek with a savere roun in my head, a sick with a severe pain in my head, a complaint of which I am sometimes troubled with. The doctors pronounce it "phelicular tonsilitis," or congestion of the trifacial nerve, which is a severe pain in the head, but nothing akin to the severe pain in the severe pain in the head, but nothing akin to the severe pain in the seve insanity. As to being taken in charge upon arriving at Ogden, it is a deliberate falsehood, as I walked three miles om the depot to my home, unaccom-

Logan, Cache County, Dec. 6 .- The old folks' entertainment passed off very pleasantly at Thatcher opera house, this afternoon. In spite of the incle-mency of the weather, the great building was nearly filled with the aged ladies and gentlemen of Cache Stake, who enjoyed to the utmost the good program presented. In addition to the features heretofore announced, there was a song by Miss Constance That-cher and a recitation by Miss Alma Robinson. All the selections were Robinson. All the selections were beautifully rendered and proved that Logan has a wealth of talent. Great credit is due the committee, John Deakin, C. B. Robbins and H. J. Nielson; the management of the opera house, Messrs. G. and B. Thatcher, for the opera house, the Hyde Park band, for its generous service, and all who assisted in making the affair a success. Mrs. John A. Widstoe acted as master Mrs. John A. Widsto acted a beautiful speech of welcome. Confectionery was passed around during the entertainment. The oldest lady Mrs. Warp. Special Correspondence. Spanish Fork, Dec. 4.—Joseph Neilson, son of Andrew and Sophie Nielson, born April 4, 1897, met his death at Teluride, Colorado, in the Smuggler Union mine by suffocation in trying to save his fellow workmen from death on Nov. His body arrived home Saturday, Nov. 23, accompanied by his friend, Henry Thanning. The funeral was held at the Central meeting house Sunday, the 24th, where a large con-Sunday, the 24th, where a large con-course of people gathered to pay their last respects to the deceased. The ser-vices were conducted by Elder August Swenson. The choir sang, "God moves in a mysterious way," and "He is in the Lord's Safe Keeping." The speekers were Professor Joseph A. Rees, David Williams, August Swensen, Marinus Larsen, Henry Thanning and Counselor Henry Gardner, who all spoke highly of the young man. "O my Father" was sung, after which the remains were followed to their last resting place. The followed to their last resting place. The casket was covered with flowers. The deceased was the first to die of a family of ten grown children. He leaves a father and mother, three brothers and six sisters, who deeply mourn the death of one they dearly loved, and they have the sympathy of the entire community.

CHOIR REORGANIZED. Last Sunday, the Third ward of Spanish Fork reorganized its choir. The Bishon stated that he expected that all whose names would be read, would consider that a call had been made upon them, and that it was expected that every one would respond, and attend regularly to the duties. The clerk then read the names, which took quite a while, for when it was finished it was found that every resident of the ward but three were included in the call. We expect to have a choir now in very deed.

We have been having considerable wet weather of late, but without frost, and the farmers generally are taking advantage of the conditions to plow and prepare the soil for next year's
